Biography

Another one of the newcomers for 2010, the German rider is an experienced hand on both the track and road scenes. The 26-year-old is a former German national time trial champion and European points champion on the track. Last season, she picked up four wins and finished third overall in the Giro della Toscana riding as a support rider for a major German team. With her move to Cervélo, she will continue to shine in time trials and have more chances to race for her own results.

Hobbies:

Friends, enjoying nature, sports, painting, my horse, shopping (a little bit)

Field of study:

Police officer

Favorite charity:

UNICEF

Favorite training ride:

Together with my sister in Waltrop, our hometown

Favorite race:

Bochum Sparkassen Giro

Favorite Cervélo bike:

I will see!

Product development goal for 2010:

A tire that does not slide on wet roads

Personal cycling goal for 2010:

Doing a good job in the team and getting good results in time trials and the World Championships on the track and road

Personal career highlight:

Winning the Holland Ladies Tour 2008, bronze medal on the track in the team pursuit 2008, national champion in the time trial 2006

How and when did you begin riding?

When I was 8 years old, I saw my sister, who started cycling one year earlier...so I wanted to do the same thing.

When did you know you wanted to be a pro?

In about 2005, I think, after my police education

What was the proudest moment in your life?

Getting my first pony from my parents when I was 8

Why do you want to be part of Cervélo TestTeam?

I've learned a lot in the past, but I want to learn more and I'm eager to experience new things.

Favorite cycling moment:

The World Championships in Varese—riding through the city where so many people and fans were standing. It was a great atmosphere.

What do you want to do after your career in cycling?

I think a part will be working with the police; the other part I still don't know yet.

Cycling tip for the average rider:

Enjoy your time on the bike and set your own goals.
